

SOUND THESIS

The Institutional Evolution of the MFD Practice.

| A systemic solution for the next generation of wealth professionals.

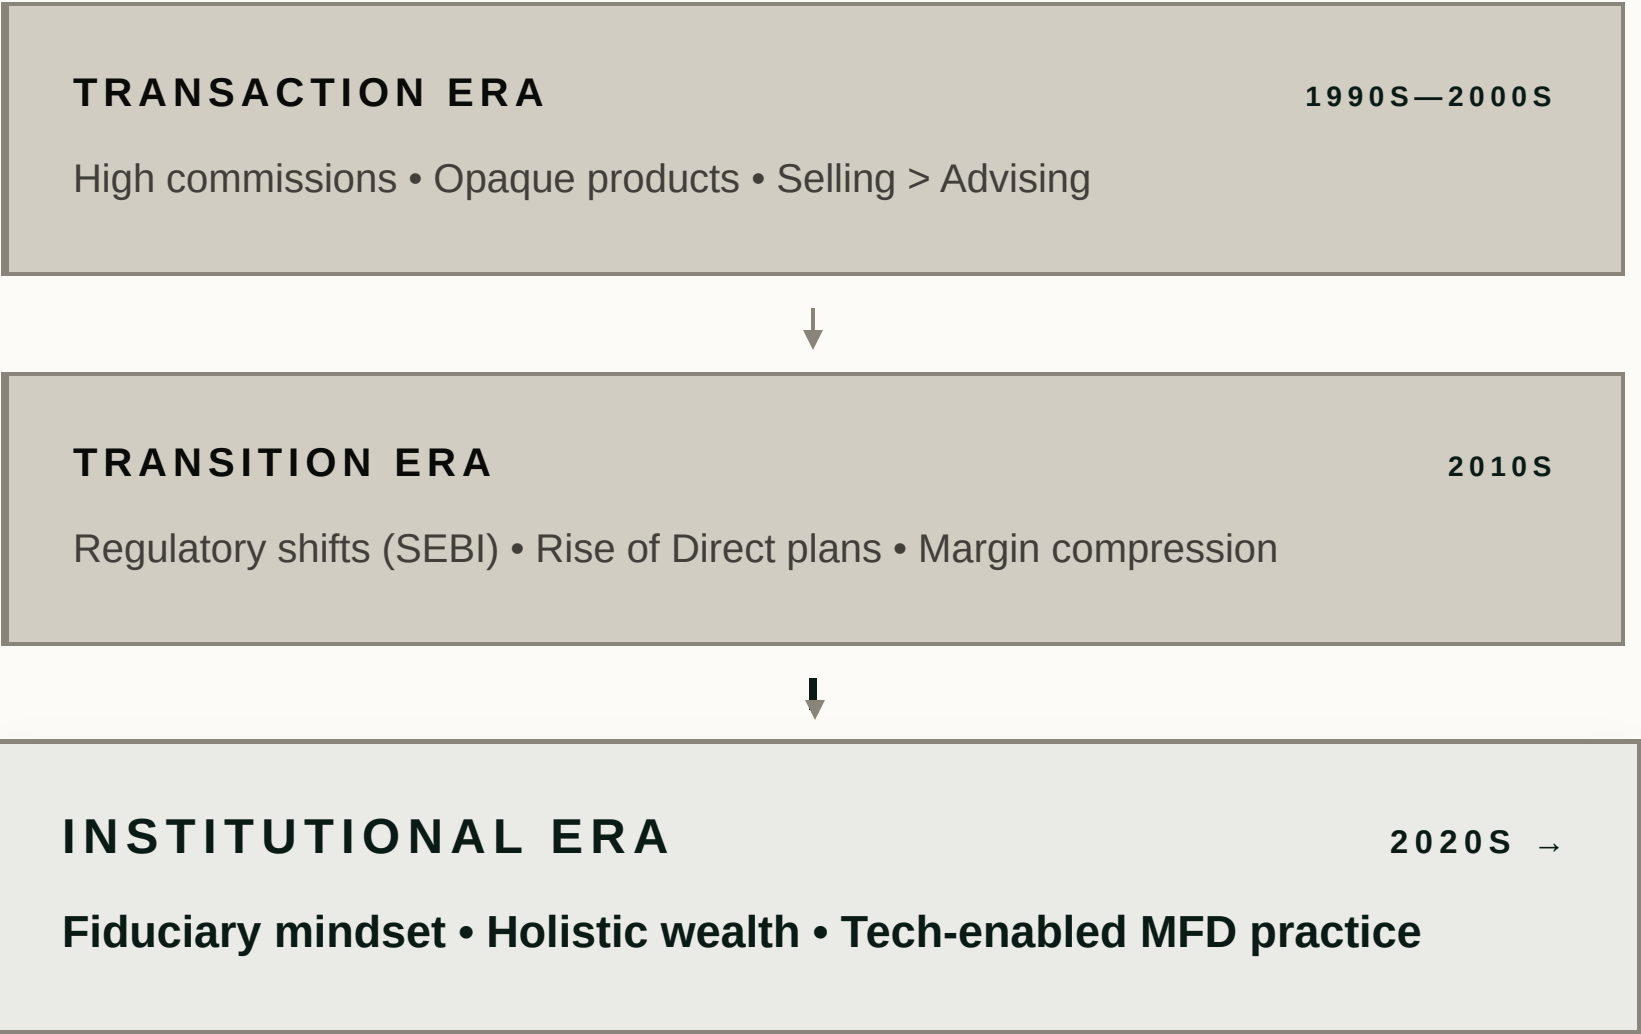

The retail engine runs on volume & friction.

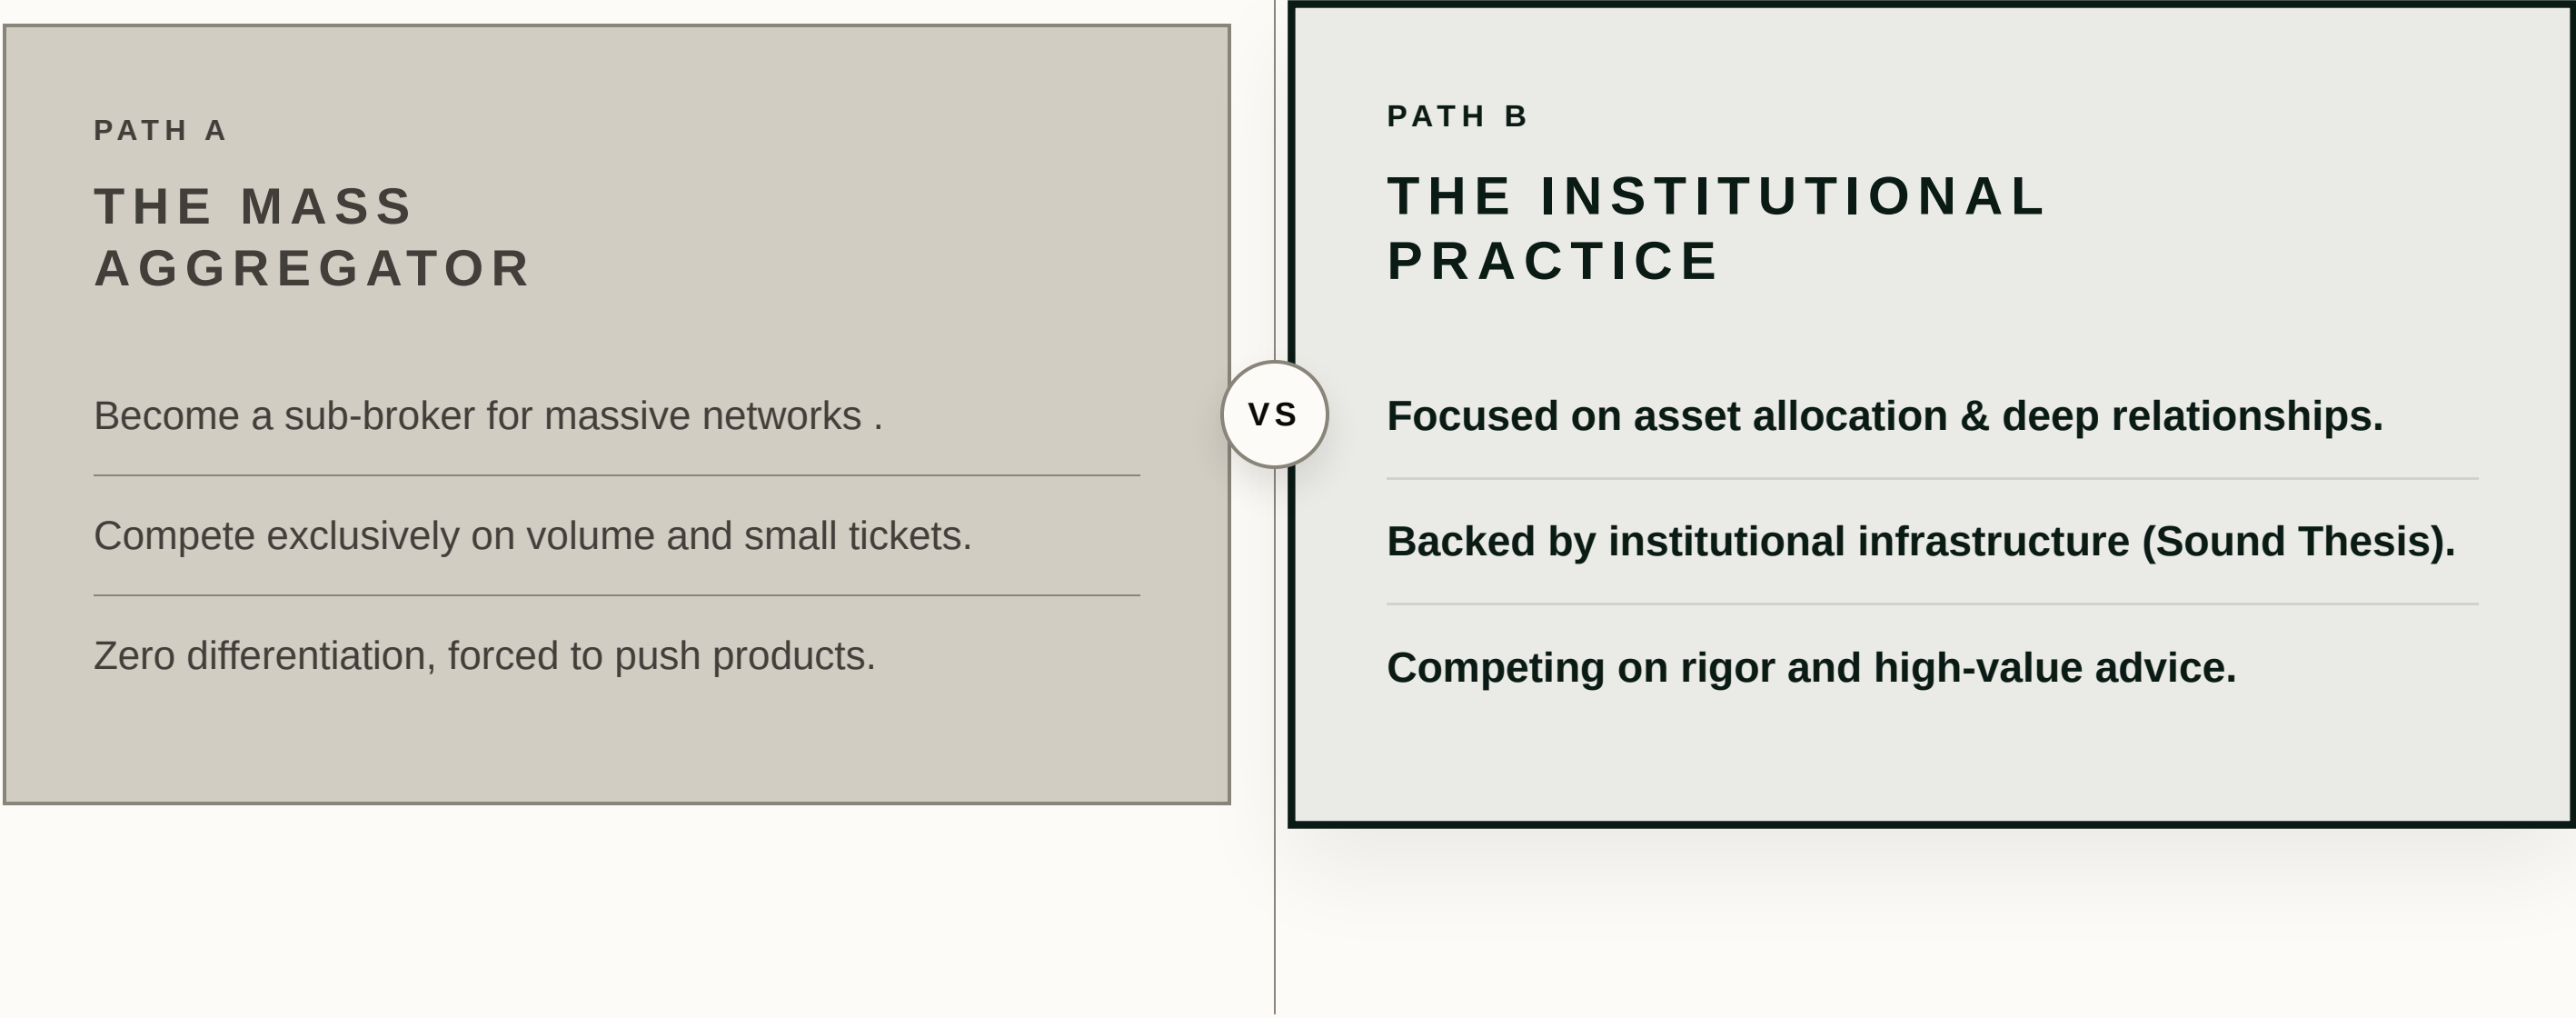

From product push to advice-led.

The old edge was access.
The new edge is trust and judgment.

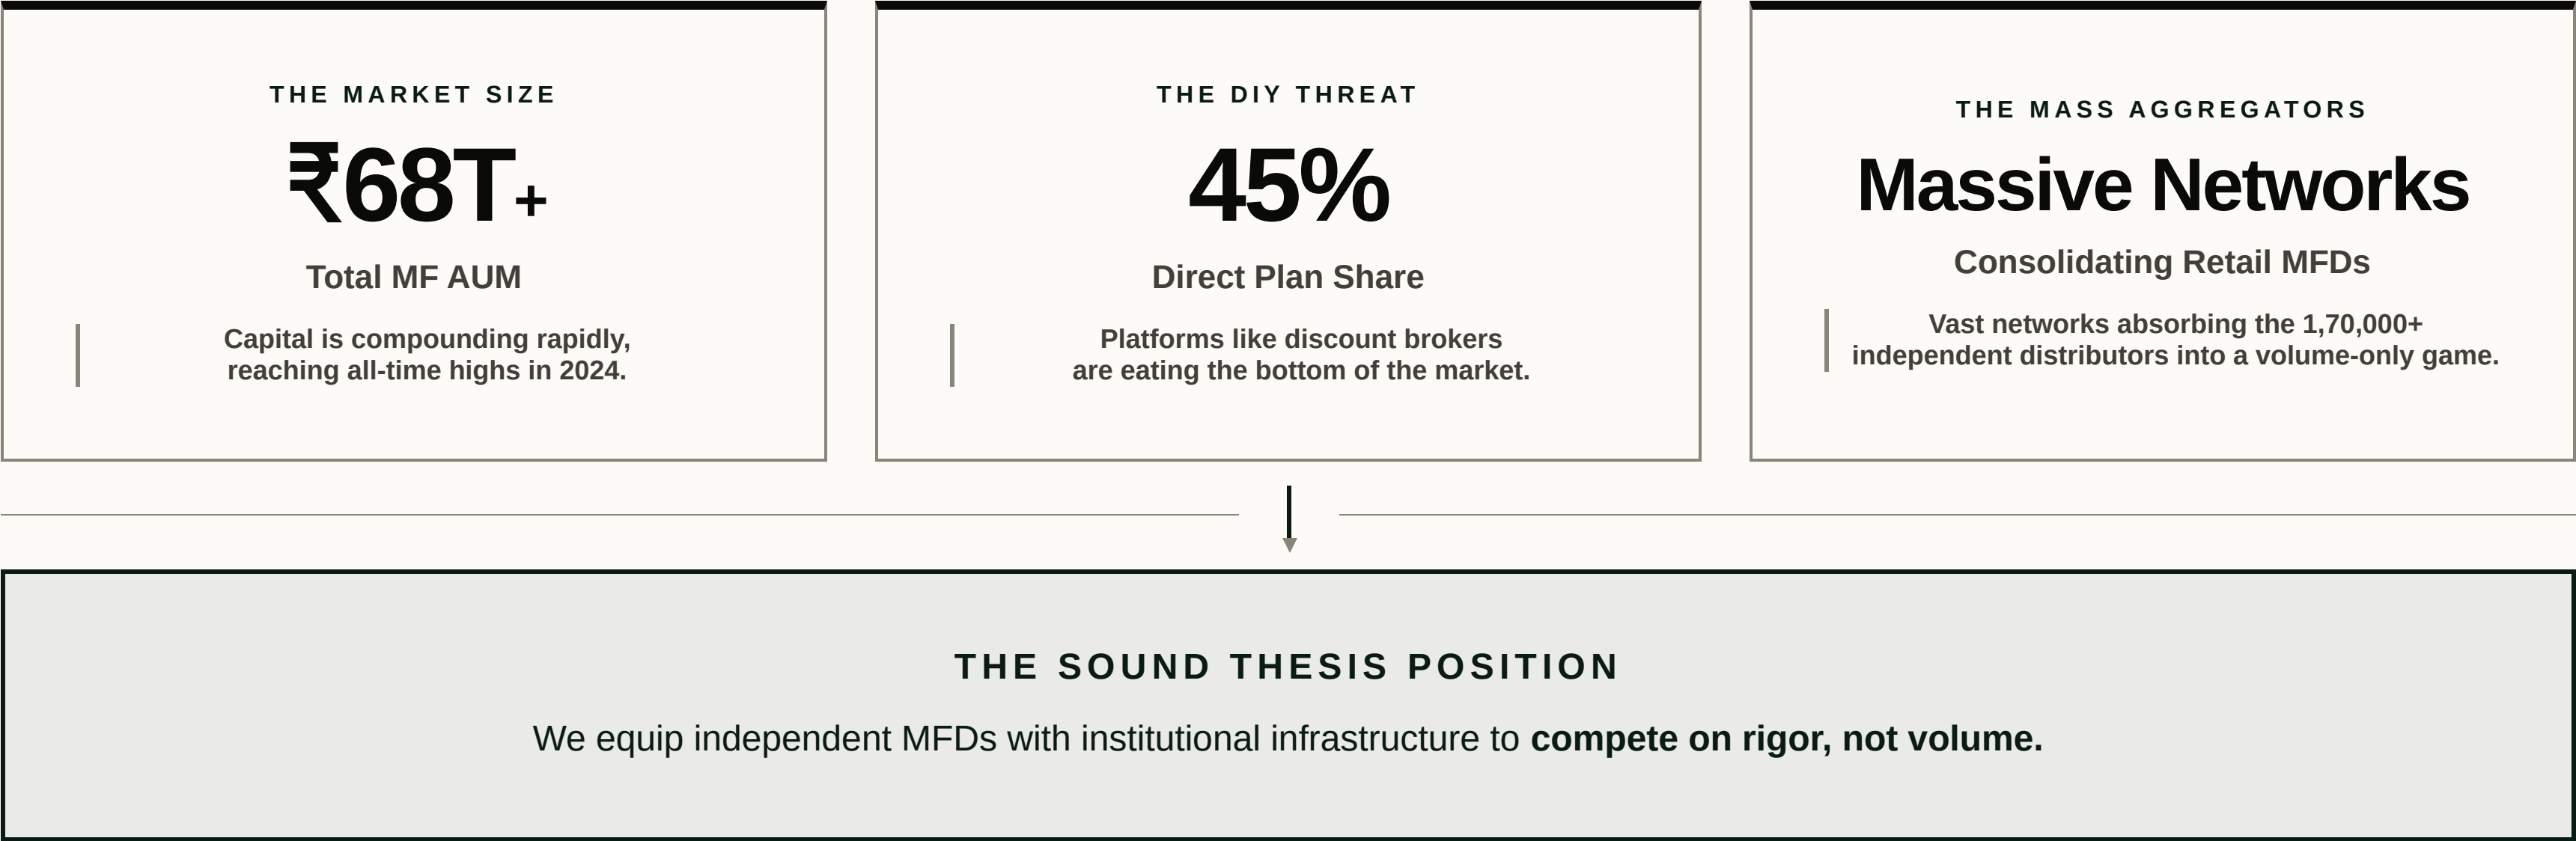

You cannot survive in the middle.

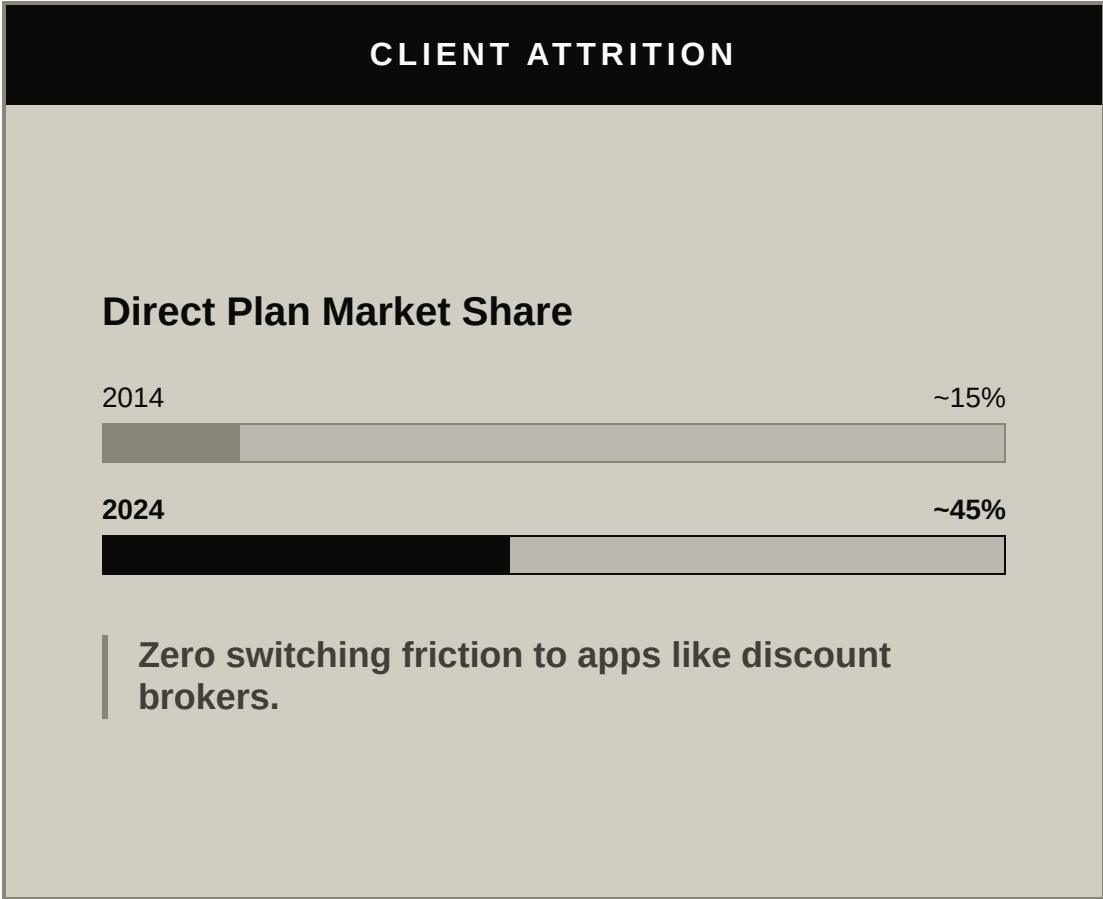

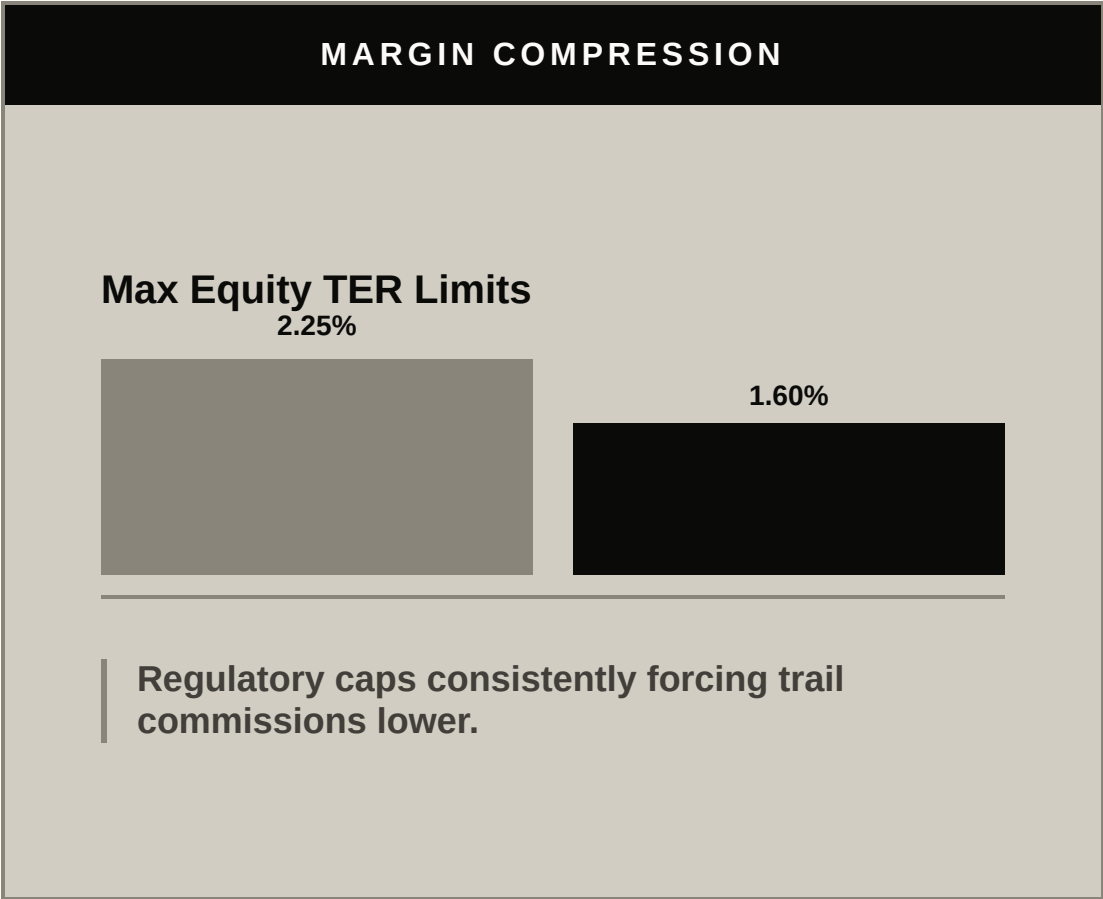

The independent professional faces a stark choice.

A market polarizing to the extremes.

Data shows the retail model is breaking.

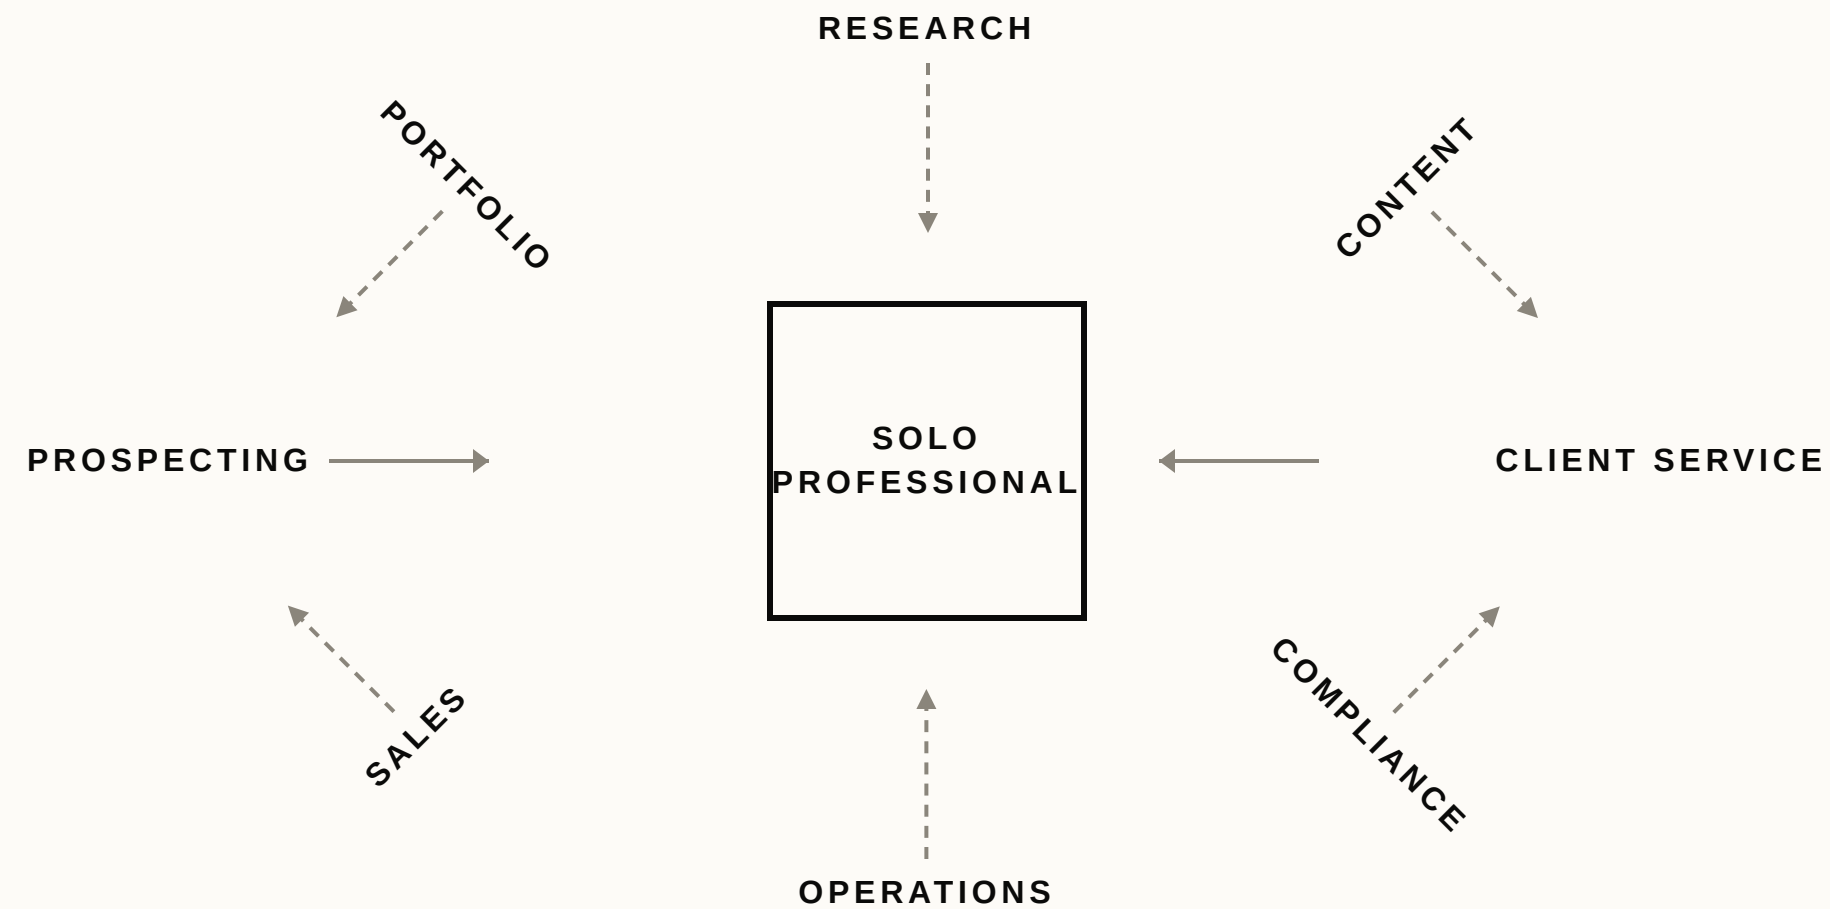

Getting first 100 clients · Running out of referrals · Cold outreach failing · No predictable engine · Standing out · Direct Plans (Discount Brokers) · Large Retail Distributors · Fintech marketing · Low trail commissions · Delayed cash flow · Small ticket sizes · Building credibility · Perceived as salesperson · Clients taking free advice · Growing beyond family · Attracting HNI · Premium personal brand · Explaining volatility · Unrealistic expectations · SIP cancellations · Long term investing · Asset allocation vs Returns · Clients chasing NFOs · Product confidence · Lack of mentorship · Continuous education · Investment research · Feeling isolated · No structured sales · Poor follow-up · Converting prospects · Educating beginners · Legacy portfolios · Growing beyond word-of-mouth · Sales vs Advisory · Changing SEBI regs · Multiple AMC portals · KYC / e-mandate friction · CRM tracking · Too much operations · Third party software issues · Getting first 100 clients · Running out of referrals · Cold outreach failing · Direct Plans (Discount Brokers) · Large Retail Distributors · Fintech marketing · Low trail commissions · Building credibility · Perceived as salesperson · Clients taking free advice · Growing beyond family · Explaining volatility · Unrealistic expectations · SIP cancellations · Long term investing · Product confidence · Lack of mentorship · Continuous education · Investment research · Converting prospects · Educating beginners · Legacy portfolios · Growing beyond word-of-mouth · Multiple AMC portals · KYC / e-mandate friction · CRM tracking · Too much operations · Third party software issues · Getting first 100 clients · Running out of referrals · Cold outreach failing · Direct Plans (Discount Brokers) · Large Retail Distributors · Fintech marketing · Low trail commissions · Building credibility · Perceived as salesperson · Clients taking free advice · Growing beyond family · Attracting HNI · Premium personal brand · Explaining volatility · Unrealistic expectations · SIP cancellations · Long term investing · Asset allocation vs Returns · Clients chasing NFOs · Product confidence · Lack of mentorship · Continuous education · Investment research · Feeling isolated · No structured sales · Poor follow-up · Converting prospects · Educating beginners

The Problems.

You are running a 5-department firm with 1 employee.

The problem is not effort.
The system demands too much.

Talent gets consumed by infrastructure.

We build the infrastructure around the professional.

Centralize what can be centralized.

Elevate what cannot.

Divide the labor. Multiply the outcome.

THE RETAIL ROUTE

Become a sub-broker for massive retail networks

Compete on lowest common denominator

Lose high-net-worth clients to RIAs

Trapped in a volume game

Or build a Practice?

THE INSTITUTIONAL ROUTE

Apply deep investment frameworks

Command trust through rigorous advice

Leverage Sound Thesis tech & ops

Build an advisory-led business

VOLUME BUSINESSES ARE VULNERABLE. TRUST IS IRREPLACEABLE.
